They combine catharrie, diuretic, and tonic properties of, the greatest value, are a purely vegetable compound, and may be taken with perfect safety, either by children or adults. E. L. Thomas, Framing-ham, Mass., writes: "For a number of years I was subject to violent Headaches, arising from a diordered condition of the stomach and bowels. About a year ago I commenced the use of Ayer's Pills, and have not had a headache since." W. P. Hannah, Gormely P. O., York Co., Ont., commenced the use of Ayer's Pill's, and have not had a headache since, W. P. Hannah, Gormley P. O., York Co., Out., Wiles. "I have used Ayer's Pills for the last thirty years, and can safely say that I have never found their equal as a cathartic medicine. I am never without them in my house." C. D. Moore, Eighn, Ill., writes: "Indigestion, Headache, and Loss of Appetite, had so weakened and debilitated my system, that I was obliged to give up work. After being under the doctor's care for two weeks, without getting any relief, I began taking Ayer's Pills. My appetite and strength returned, and I was soon enabled to resume my work, in perfect health."

without it. As a liver medicine and general purifier of the blood, it has no equal." Mrs. A. B. Allen, Whitespoek, Va., writes: "My youngest child, two years of age, was taken with Bowel Complaint, which we could not cure. We tried many remedies, but he continued to grow worse, and finally became so reduced in flesh that we could only move him upon a pillow. It was suggested by one of the doctors that Servidia might be the cause of the trouble. We procured a bottle of
